To the Honorable Gregory M. Sleet
Judges Chambers
U.S. District Court House
844 North King Street
Wilmington, Delaware 19801

Your Honor:

Still in deep respect for your time, and request that you except this letter and accompanying sworn affidavit of further retaliation by DCC staff members for my constitutional right to submit institutional grievances and address the courts. Sir, it is abundantly clear that their actions are by no precipitation of my doing. And are aimed at serving one sole purpose retaliation and/or punishment!

In Closing, on my behalf certainly my requests are warranted.

Dated: April 10, 2008

James Arthur Biggins, ^{III}
Plaintiff,

vs.
Governor: Ruth Ann Minner, et al.,
Defendants.

C.A. No. 1-08-04 GMS

Sworn Affidavit

1, James Arthur Biggins, ^{III}
Plaintiff in the above captioned case, do hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the hereafter statements are true and correct to the very best of my knowledge and recollection.

1. On the morning of April 9, 2008, at approximately 10:20 AM or so Officer: Treehune came and informed me that I had a grievance hearing.

2. Being caught off guard and unprepared because Sunday the grievance hearing notification had just been posted for upcoming institutional grievances. The notice further informed that the hearings would not be conducted until April 19, 2008, and to be ready.

3. Nonetheless, I open my cell door wide so that grievant chairperson Cpl. Molly Gross could see that I was trying to prepare myself.

4. By the time I had prepared myself within minutes and proceeded to go down stairs, Cpl. Gross begins hollering "come on I aint got all day. You should've been ready."

5. I responded by asking her was it the 19th yet?

6. Cpl. Gross then said "I dont care what day it is. Im here, you should've been ready. Look, you dont want your grievance heard. It makes me no difference, go lock your damn ass in there. I dont care and write a grievance on me."

7. I informed Cpl. Gross, having never left from upstairs, but walking downward. "If you are going to act like that, I dont care."

8. Cpl. Gross abruptly got up from the day room rec area table and proceeded as if she was coming to confront me. I turned and went back to my cell locking the door.

9. Cpl. Gross could be heard blurted continual profanity and saying other things, even though I was locked in.

10. Present and in close proximity of this event was Sgt. J. Herman and my cell mate Leonard McDonald.
